Teaching Kindness is Essential.

When children don't feel welcomed, included, and physically and emotionally safe, they won't be able to learn. I'm Nicole Black and I create resources to help create a classroom community, to limit bullying behaviors, and to intentionally help kids speak and act with kindness more often.

Kindness can be taught. This resource will help you do it.

How to Use the Pizza Kindness Activity

1. Prep: Print the parts of the pizza on cardstock and laminate them if you wish.
2. Tell your students/group/troop/kids they will build a pizza through their kind actions and kind words.
3. Every time you see kind behaviors you want to continue to encourage, give your group a piece of the Kindness Pizza, starting with the pan, then the dough, then the sauce, then the cheese, then the toppings. (Use as many or as few toppings as you'd like). You can glue them down, tape them down, or Velcro them down.
4. When they have built their Kindness Pizza, have a pizza party as a group.
5. You can follow up with a writing/drawing activity to show what they did to earn their Kindness Pizza
6. Remind them that we do not need praise or rewards for acting and speaking with kindness, but often when we are kind, kindness comes back around to us...this time in the form of a pizza!
