

Volunteer Journal

Ideas to use the Volunteer Journal

- *Choose the version best for your child/children.
- *Print out several sheets for each child.
- *After you volunteer as a family, talk about it.
- *Ask them why you all volunteered.
- *Ask them how they felt about volunteering.
- *Remind them how easy it was to volunteer.
- *Then encourage them to draw a picture showing what they did.
- *Encourage them to write a sentence or a few sentences.
- *You can keep all the journal entries and then staple them into a book or hole-punch them into a 3-ring notebook so you can keep adding to it.

Need kid-friendly volunteering ideas?

www.coffeeandcarpool.com/monthly-family-friendly-volunteer-ideas-for-kids/

I volunteered

It's important because

I feel

I volunteered

It's important to volunteer because

I felt _____ when I volunteered because