Teaching Kindness is Essential.

When children don't feel welcomed, included, and physically and emotionally safe, they won't be able to learn. I'm Nicole Black and I create resources to help create a classroom community, to limit bullying behaviors, and to intentionally help kids speak and act with kindness more often.

Kindness can be taught. This resource will help you do it.

Covers 7 ways kids can speak and act with kindness every day at school!

Ways to Use This Resource:

1. Print the version you wish to use:

*color or black and white

2. If you use the black and white version, kids can color in the pictures using skin color crayons.

3. Read the book as a whole class, in small groups, independently, and for silent reading.

4. Follow up and use the discussion starters to talk more about all the different ways we can show kindness during Hanukkah.

5. Kids can write in one of the two writing prompts to show their understanding of the concept.

Extension Idea: Play dreidel and remember to take turns and play fairly. Find a Toys for Tots donation site and donate gifts for others. Make a Hanukkah treat and give it to someone else.

Hanukkah Kindness Discussion Starters:

Why is it important to show kindness?

How can you be kind during Hanukkah?

How is being thankful for your gifts kind? How can you let other people know you are grateful for the gifts they gave you?

What manners can you show at Hanukkah?

How is that showing kindness to others?

Why is waiting your turn a kind thing to do?

When do you need to wait at Hanukkah time?

How can you offer to help during Hanukkah cooking? Do you give away what you cook?

What is your favorite food at Hanukkah time?

Do you help in the kitchen?

Have you ever donated gifts to others? How does it feel to donate gifts and toys to other children?
