Teaching Kindness is Essential.

When children don't feel welcomed, included, and physically and emotionally safe, they won't be able to learn. I'm Nicole Black and I create resources to help create a classroom community, to limit bullying behaviors, and to intentionally help kids speak and act with kindness more often.

Kindness can be taught. This resource will help you do it.

Ways to Use This Resource:

1. Print the version you wish to use:

*color or black and white

2. If you use the black and white version, kids can color in the pictures using skin color crayons.

3. Read the book as a whole class, in small groups, independently, and for silent reading.

4. Follow up and use the discussion starters to talk more about all the different ways we can show kindness during Thanksgiving.

5. Kids can write in one of the two writing prompts to show their understanding of the concept.

Discussion Starters:

Why is it important to show kindness?

How can you be kind during Thanksgiving?

How is being thankful or grateful kind? What are you thankful for? Who are you thankful for? How can you let them know you are grateful for them?

What manners can you show at Thanksgiving dinner? How is that showing kindness to others?

Why is sharing a kind thing to do? What is your favorite pie to share?

How can you offer to help during Thanksgiving meal cooking? Do you help in the kitchen?

Have you ever donated food to others or made meals for others at Thanksgiving? How does it feel to donate food to others?
