Teaching Kindness is Essential.

When children don't feel welcomed, included, and physically and emotionally safe, they won't be able to learn. I'm Nicole Black and I create resources to help create a classroom community, to limit bullying behaviors, and to intentionally help kids speak and act with kindness more often.

Kindness can be taught. This resource will help you do it.

Covers 7 ways kids can speak and act with kindness every day at school!

Ways to Use This Resource:

1. Print the version you wish to use:

*color or black and white

2. If you use the black and white version, kids can color in the pictures using skin color crayons.

3. Read the book as a whole class, in small groups, independently, and for silent reading.

4. Follow up and use the discussion starters to talk more about all the different ways we can show kindness during Christmas.

5. Kids can write in one of the two writing prompts to show their understanding of the concept.

Extension Idea: Make holiday cookies and give them away. Find an "Angel Tree" or a Toys for Tots donation site and donate gifts for others.
