Teaching Kindness is Essential.

When children don't feel welcomed, included, and physically and emotionally safe, they won't be able to learn. I'm Nicole Black and I create resources to help create a classroom community, to limit bullying behaviors, and to intentionally help kids speak and act with kindness more often.

Kindness can be taught. This resource will help you do it.

How to Use the Kindness

Easter Challenge

1. Print the version you wish to use: black and white to color in bunnies or color version and cross off bunnies.
2. Every time one child is kind to another child, they get to color in a bunny or cross off a bunny. If you're using it for students, every time they are kind to another student they can color in or cross off a gift.
3. When they get to the end of the sheet, they can earn a small gift, an Easter-themed cookie, or Peeps to celebrate their kindness.
4. Continue with the positive reinforcement with another kindness challenge.
